Six thousand dollars were sold at the regular monthly meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association on Monday evening.

The Rathmel ball club played the Brookville club on the latter's ground Saturday. One score was made during the game and Rathmel got that one. It was an interesting game.

Teachers' Institute of Jefferson county will be held at Brookville beginning Nov. 12th. Prof. Hughes is making an effort to get a good array of talent for the occasion.

There will be no divine services at the Lutheran church next Sunday, owing to the absence of the pastor. Sunday school at 9.15 A. M., following which the Luther League will meet.

Hon. Charles L. Hawley, of Scranton, Prohibition candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, addressed a large crowd in the Court House at Brookville Monday night. Hawley is a bright fellow and a good talker.

Sheriff Elliott of Elk county passed through Reynoldsville on train No. 2 Monday with four tough looking fellows who he, with three assistants, was escorting to the penitentiary at Allegheny for a term of eight years.

The free hack made five trips to Rathmel Saturday instead of four trips. Besides this Mr. Burns sent an extra carriage to Rathmel about five o'clock to accommodate the ladies from that place who were down here shopping.

The Adam Forepaugh show will exhibit at Dubois, Wednesday, Sept. 26th. For the benefit of those desiring to attend, the B., R. & P. Ry will sell excursion tickets from Reynoldsville including coupon of admission to show at the low rate of 90 cents.

One of the prettiest monuments in this section was set up in the Baptist cemetery last week by E. E. Stewart, of this place, over the grave of J. F. Mulholland. It is a Quincy granite, cottage design monument. The finish and work on it is excellent.

A Georgia editor, in a fit of desperation, dashed off the following: "The wind bloweth, the water floweth, the farmer soweth, the subscriber oweth and the Lord knoweth that we are in need of our dues. So come a-runnin' ere we go a gunnin', this thing of dunnin' gives us the blues."

Sufferers from dyspepsia have only themselves to blame if they fail to test the wonderful curative qualities of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, this medicine strengthens every organ of the body, and even the most abused stomach is soon restored to healthy action.

George Armagost, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Armagost, of this place, died at Driftwood Saturday from consumption. George has been unable to work since last June. He leaves a wife and two children. The remains were taken through here on No. 6 Monday morning and buried at Red Bank.

John P. Dunn, the restaurateur, who occupies the rooms next door to the postoffice, has had some improvements made in his restaurant and has had the front room arranged so ladies can go through that way into his oyster parlor. Mr. Dunn is doing a good business with his restaurant and green grocery.

We have just received a large sample book from New York of the latest designs in programs, folders, announcement cards, tickets, menus, show cards, badges, souvenirs, visiting cards, beveled edge cards, wedding and reception invitations, tassels, &c. If you want anything in the above line call and see our samples.

A special train over the B., R. & P. Ry's made fast time from Bradford to Falls Creek last week. The distance between the two places is ninety miles which was covered in as many minutes. The man who thinks one mile a minute over the grade between these places is not fast time would only have to ride on the train that made it to be convinced.

Six or eight chaps, ranging in age from 12 to 16 years, had a hilarious time at Prescottville one afternoon last week. They got a keg of beer and the party began to get outside of the intoxicant. By the time they had guzzled the four gallons of beer they were ready to proceed into devilishness, which they did by smashing a window to smithereens in the Prescottville school house.

A picture of Miss Ella Funk, the heroine of West Liberty, the chief actor in the tragedy which ended the career of Henry Bowser, appeared in the Dubois Courier Monday morning. The Courier says she is 18 years old, weighs 160 pounds, has snappy black eyes, is tall and symmetrical and as full of courage as a lemon is of the circus beverage.

It frequently occurs that people who have advertisements or notices to publish neglect to hand them into the office until Tuesday afternoon or evening, and of course expect the notices to appear in the paper the next morning. In cases where it can be just as easily done, please hand all advertisements and notices in Monday afternoon, as proof reading, correcting, making up forms and many other things must be done the day before going to press that takes time.

Cash Groceries.

Swartz Bros., J. A. Welsh, L. D. Trudgen, L. J. McEntire & Co., and J. C. King & Co., grocersmen of this place, have all adopted the cash system. These gentlemen claim they are compelled to adopt the cash system because so many people take advantage of the trust system. It is claimed that some people who were accommodated during the recent strike are now sending their cash to other towns for goods. The cash system, however, means cheaper groceries.

Made a Discovery.

The editor of the Clearfield Public Spirit, who is a candidate for office, has discovered that there are not many honest men in this country, judging from the following item clipped from last week's issue of his paper: "Human nature is a strange thing. It is only when a man wants an office himself that he becomes impressed with the idea that the class of honest and capable men in this country is reduced to less than a half dozen, of whom he himself is the most prominent."

A Correction.

In our issue of August 22nd we made an incorrect statement which we have since discovered and gladly correct concerning Ed. C. Burns' work as tax collector. Mr. Burns did not lift the duplicates for 1894, hence Mr. Pentz could not take up the work where Mr. Burns left off. Mr. Burns will collect the outstanding tax of 1893, which has been slow coming in on account of the hard times the past year. Mr. Pentz has lifted the duplicates of 1894 and will collect the same.

Did You See It?

A number of Reynoldsville people did not retire last Friday night until after they had seen the partial eclipse of the moon, which was visible here about 10.40. There was such a dense fog that night that it obscured the view of the eclipse that would have otherwise been very plain. The first contact of the shadow was at the north limb of the moon. The magnitude of the eclipse was a trifle less than one-half of the moon's diameter. The moon left the earth's shadow about a half hour after midnight.

A Lively Corpse.

The Dubois Courier of Monday contained a special from Pittsburgh dated Sept. 16th, disseminating the news that J. L. Ewing, of this place, had dropped dead in a restaurant at Pittsburgh Saturday forenoon. The special said his daughter, who had gone to Wheeling, was hastily summoned, and the remains of Mr. Ewing were brought home. Mr. Ewing was a very lively corpse when he got off the train at this place Saturday. Mr. Ewing said, "I knew it was not so soon as he read it." The author of the Courier's special was mistaken about Mr. Ewing being dead. He did faint away on Friday from heart trouble in a restaurant at Pittsburgh.

Big Wedding.

In April, 1893, Misses Lou and Mary E. Reynolds, daughters of Dr. W. H. Reynolds, of Prescottville, packed their trunks and traveled over seven or eight states and "brought up" at Montpelier, Idaho, there to take up the work of teaching school. A few miles north-west of Montpelier is situated the town of Pocatello wherein dwelled a specimen of the male gender who answered to the name of David McGregor. Miss Mary and Mr. McGregor became acquainted and their friendship culminated in a beautiful church wedding at Montpelier, Idaho, in the Episcopal church, on the 22nd of August, 1894. The wedding was a big affair.

M. E. Preachers.

Below we give a few of the important appointments made in the Clarion District at the Erie Annual Conference held at Fredonia, N. Y.: Reynoldsville, P. J. Slattery; Punxsutawney, J. W. Blaisdell; Brookville, R. M. Warren; Dubois, Clearing Peters; Brockwayville, J. L. Stratton; Ridgway, A. R. Rich; Emoriekville, W. S. Gearhart; New Bethlehem, D. A. Platt; Beechtree, D. S. Steadman; Clarion, J. C. Gillette; Falls Creek, Rev. Hicks; Big Run, I. H. Vance; Summerville, J. S. Neigh; Bellview, J. H. Jelbart.
Rev. J. C. McDonald was moved off this district to South Oil City, and W. W. Dale was sent to Tionesta.

Youngest Son.

Roland Claire, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ferris, died at 2.00 P. M., Wednesday, Sept. 12th, after an illness of almost three weeks. Claire, who was a very bright boy, was eight years old June 24, 1894. He was a member of the Presbyterian Sunday school and proved himself to be a good speaker by reciting pieces on several occasions when the school gave programs on Children's Day or at other times. His death was caused by brain trouble. The boy took sick on a Sunday morning and the Friday before he had been in the sun all day. Rev. H. R. Johnson, pastor of Presbyterian church, conducted the funeral services at the home of the parents on Main street Thursday afternoon and the little remains were laid beneath the sod of Beulah cemetery.

A Robber Killed.

Three masked robbers gained an entrance into the residence of Jacob Funk, a well-to-do farmer who lives at West Liberty, last Wednesday at 2.00 A. M. and tied the man and gagged the lady and then demanded the old couple to give up their money, as the robbers thought they had considerable in the house. Ella Funk, daughter of the aged couple, who slept up stairs, heard the noise and went to the head of the stairs and saw a masked man standing at the bottom, and instead of screaming, fainting or getting too much excited to do anything, the brave girl retreated to her room, climbed out onto the porch and cautiously crept from one end of the porch to the other to see if there were any burglars on the outside watching, then she jumped twelve feet to the ground and with nothing on but her night dress, ran to a neighbor's house and gave the alarm. Five men answered the call for help and surrounded the house. The men inside discovered the position they were in and as quick as they came out of the house they began shooting and running. The men outside opened fire on the robbers but were only able to bring down one of the trio, and his right leg was shattered above the knee by a ball from a Winchester rifle. The other two escaped. Henry C. Bowser, the man shot, was taken to Dubois for medical treatment but he died from the effects of the wound at four o'clock on the afternoon of the shooting. The man shot was a son of Peter Bowser, a respected farmer living near Big Run. Henry C. was a bad man; he served a term in the penitentiary. The men who escaped are supposed to be parties that are not strangers in this section of the country.

Court News.

Jefferson county court convened at Brookville on Monday last week. The grand jury had 68 cases to come before it. The following cases were disposed of:
Frank Fulton pleaded guilty of breaking into the company store at Adrian.
Wm. Bailly, assault and battery; plaintiff did not appear and the bill was ignored. Plaintiff to pay costs.
Samuel Ruth, assault and battery; not a true bill; prosecutor, George Eisenhuth, to pay costs. Eisenhuth failed to have collateral to liquidate the cost and is now boarding the amount out with Sheriff Gourley.
John Woods and others from Washington township, assault and battery. Verdict, guilty.
Bon. Brink, horse stealing. Not guilty.
G. Macro, for selling liquor without license; true bill.
Frank Leo, for selling liquor without license; true bill.
Wm. and Joseph Reinard, for selling to minors. Verdict guilty. William "skipped" the country before the officers got hold of him, but Joseph will have to answer for the charge.
Ed. Ashley, perjury; bill ignored.
Several cases for embezzlement were settled.

New Telephone Line.

Mr. A. A. Swab, of Rathmel, was in town Friday and stated to the Courier that he has the agency for a new telephone which he proposes to introduce in this section at an early date, providing he can get a franchise to erect poles and string wires. The telephone is manufactured at Columbus and the inventor and manufacturer claim that it is equal to the Bell in every respect. The cuts of the phones exhibited resemble the Bell very much. It is in use in a number of places and the testimonials shown speak of it very highly. Mr. Swab says it is his intention to connect DuBois, Falls Creek, Reynoldsville and Rathmel and that he will rent his phones at $25 per year. He is confident that he can get a large number of subscribers at that price and will begin work this fall and expects to have the line in operation a few weeks thereafter.—Dubois Courier.

A Great Band.

[Punxsutawney Spirit.]
The Reynoldsville band was over here last Thursday discoursing music for the K. of P. reunion, and our people were completely captivated by its delicious symphonies. The boys play in perfect harmony, and their music is generally of the most difficult kind. A band like that is something that a town has a right to be proud of, and we don't blame Reynoldsville folks for feeling a little bit puffed up about it. Dick Ramsey, the leader, takes a deep interest in the organization, and they are all gentlemen as well as musicians.

A Chartered Corporation Now.

Last week a charter was granted at Harrisburg to the Shawmut mining company of St. Marys; capital, $500,000. Directors, Andrew Kaul, B. Frank Hall, John Kaul, George C. Simmons, St. Marys; Joseph W. Cochran, Horton township; J. Henry Cochran, Williamsport; J. K. P. Hall, Ridgway.—Elk Democrat.

Cash is the motto. Closer profits and cheaper goods to the consumer. It is an absolute necessity to ourselves and the town, as many are going away for their goods. For prices call and see our goods. J. C. KING & CO.

Called to His Reward.

At 2.50 A. M., on Saturday, Sept. 15th, 1894, George Zetler, of Emoriekville, Pa., peacefully passed behind the Veil of Time. Something over one year ago Mr. Zetler became effected with what the doctors called locomotor ataxia, which effected his limbs so it was difficult for him to walk. From the time he was thus effected he gradually failed until the White Horse and Rider called for him in the quiet morning hours when the other members of the family were asleep. Mr. Zetler had retired to bed without any apparent signs of the sudden summons. At midnight his wife gave him medicine and then returned to bed. She awoke and did not hear his heavy breathing and hastily going to his bedside found his heart still beating, but he could not speak. In 1856 Mr. Zetler was married to Hetty M. Kelley, of Venango county. Unto them seven children were born. His wife and five children, all married, survive him. The children are: Mrs. C. N. Lewis, Reynoldsville, Mrs. Jonathan Deemer, Jr., Shamokin, Mrs. Hiram Deemer, Camp Run, Mrs. C. C. Averill and C. J. Zetler, of Emoriekville. The deceased was fifty-eight years old. He had lived in Emoriekville forty-six years and was well known in Jefferson county and highly respected by all who knew him. He was postmaster at Emoriekville for a number of years and served as Justice of the Peace twenty years. Twenty-seven years ago he joined the M. E. church and was a faithful, earnest and consistent member. For a number of years he was an exhorter in the church and those who have heard him say he was a pleasant speaker.

The funeral services were held in the M. E. church in Emoriekville on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. H. Jelbart, who was pastor of the Emoriekville church for five years. A large concourse of people were present to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed. The remains were lowered beneath the sod of the Moore cemetery to await the resurrection morning.

Our Invitation.

IF THE STAR does not contain the usual amount of local news this week, the readers will please remember it is because we received a special invitation last week which was even read to us by a man selected for that special purpose. The invitation, as near as we can remember, read thusly: "To C. A. Stephenson, greeting: We command you, that setting aside all business and excuses whatever, you be and appear in your proper person before our Judges at Brookville, at a county court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, there to be held for the county of Jefferson, forthwith, to testify the truth and give evidence on behalf of the Commonwealth on an indictment against Mr. Blank, and herein fail not under penalty of one hundred pounds." The invitation was witnessed by Hon. E. Heath Clark, president of said court at Brookville, and signed by W. D. Clarke, clerk. We do not always accept invitations, but because this one was worded just as it was, we decided to honor the Judge with our presence at his court one day last week and several days this week.

This a free country until the court wants you, then there is no alternative but to obey the call. In some petty cases it is not justice to ask a man to neglect his business and go to court for three or four days, or longer, for the small sum of one dollar a day and then pay out the dollar each day for boarding. Then again, there are instances where people are forced into taking a case to court who are not able to pay even the $1.00 per day.

Court Postponed.

Judge Mayer issued an order last Friday that the regular session of September court in Elk county would not convene. Harry Alvan Hall, U. S. District Attorney, made a motion to have the array of jurors quashed, owing to irregularities in filling the wheel and failure of the proper officials in the matter of sealing the wheel and not having it properly secured. The witnesses and jurors were notified not to appear. This continues until November the H. C. Taylor homicide trial and the trial of Daniel Oyster, late president of the Ridgway bank that failed over a year ago.

Who Wants A Bargain?

Wm. Copping, who owns a valuable property opposite the Burns House, on Main Street, and also runs a grocery store in the same building, requested the scribe to say that his store and property is for sale and will be sold at a bargain to somebody. This is no "blow" but business. Whoever wants a bargain, now is their time.
